AMERICAN OVERSIGHT BOARD OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
AND THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

The American Oversight Board was established in 2013 to monitor the activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Department of Justice. The Board's primary focus is on ensuring transparency and accountability in the operations of these agencies. It has conducted numerous investigations and issued reports on various issues, including surveillance, civil liberties, and the use of force. The Board's work is essential for maintaining the trust of the public in these institutions.

The Board has a long history of advocating for reform and transparency. It has worked closely with the media and other civil society organizations to expose wrongdoing and promote accountability. The Board's reports have led to significant changes in the policies and procedures of the FBI and the Department of Justice. The Board's work is a testament to the power of public oversight and the importance of holding government agencies accountable.

The Board's work is ongoing, and it continues to monitor the activities of the FBI and the Department of Justice. The Board is committed to transparency and accountability, and it will continue to work to ensure that these agencies are held to the highest standards. The Board's work is essential for maintaining the trust of the public in these institutions, and it is a testament to the power of public oversight.
